

Admission to Three month Certificate Course on Museum Studies

The Centre for Studies in Museology, University of Jammu in collaboration with the Kolkata Centre for Creativity (KCC) is set to initiate the 6th batch of KCC's annual Online Certificate Course on Museum Studies.

This 3-month online course is an intensive, immersive, hands-on programme that will provide participants with the knowledge and professional skill set required to run future museums, cultural centres, and archives. Museology and archaeology experts and academics will guide the participants to explore the key theoretical frameworks of museology and focus on the practical aspects by equipping and enabling them with the practical knowledge, information, and critical tools required for successfully documenting cultural objects, putting up exhibitions, conserving cultural properties, and manage museums.

Prior experience in museum studies is not mandatory.
