

Celebrating 75th Republic Day of 25th January, 2024.

An event to celebrate the 75th Republic Day was organized in the Department of History, University of Jammu by the students of semester first of P.G Department of History in collaboration with scholars and faculty members. The Chief Guest for the occasion was HOD of the department Prof Suman Jamwal. The event hosted many cultural and literary activities such as essay writing, poetry writing competitions, table talk, poetry recitations, national songs and games to disseminate the patriotic message and to commemorate the Constitution makers. Apart from it a small documentary was prepared voicing Republic Day wish from students of the Department. The faculty members addressed the audience and complimented the efforts of students in organizing the event and also highlighted the legacy of Constitution makers.

