Objective: Human beings have lived with close proximity with nature since ages and both have a symbiotic relation with each other. Due to the onslaught of industry and increase in population, the human began exploitation of nature to meet its correspondingly increasing needs and therefore, depleted the resources bringing a large portion of it to the verge of extinction. There is a dire need of shifting the anthropocentric focus on nature and understand the centrality of environment and ecology in the relationship between man and nature. Literature being a carrier and sensitizer with regard to human and cultural values, this course aims at sensitizing students with regard to the significance and the centrality of nature and its ecology for the preservation of human race. It also aims at bringing about environmental consciousness among students, through the genres of prose, poetry, novel, and short stories.
